Biography

Ashley Jana is a singer/songwriter/producer based in New York City. Writing in genres ranging from dance pop to ballads, Ashley made her mark in the music industry with her song placements on Lifetime's hit reality show Dance Moms, which cultivated over 100 million viewers nationwide. Her song "Spin The Bottle" was also the theme song for WWE Diva Kaitlyn. Because of the national exposure she received from these placements, young girls across America have begun to love and adore Ashley Jana. She has garnered over a million views on YouTube, sold tens of thousands of downloads, and inspired the creation of a plethora of fan videos that little girls made to Ashley's music.

With her wide range, dynamic tone, fresh production, and songwriting skills, Ashley Jana is able to create new and exciting pop music from the ground up all on her own, and continues to do so to this day. It is clearly only the beginning for this already successful and multi-faceted artist.
